

Exhibit A

Georgia Recreational Property Act (codified at Ga. Code 51-3-20 et seq.)

Section 51-3-20. Purpose

The purpose of this article is to encourage owners of land to make land and water areas available to the public for recreational purposes by limiting the owners' liability toward persons entering thereon for recreational purposes.

Section 51-3-21. Definitions

As used in this article, the term:

- (1) "Charge" means the admission price or fee asked in return for invitation or permission to enter or go upon the land.
- (2) "Land" means land, roads, water, watercourses, private ways and buildings, structures, and machinery or equipment when attached to the realty.
- (3) "Owner" means the possessor of a fee interest, a tenant, a lessee, an occupant, or a person in control of the premises.
- (4) "Recreational purpose" includes, but is not limited to, any of the following or any combination thereof: hunting, fishing, swimming, boating, camping, picnicking, hiking, pleasure driving, nature study, water skiing, winter sports, and viewing or enjoying historical, archeological, scenic, or scientific sites.

Section 51-3-22. Except as specifically provided, owner of land owes no duty to keep premises safe for entry or use for recreational purposes or to give warning of dangerous condition.

Except as specifically recognized by or provided in Code Section 51-3-25, an owner of land owes no duty of care to keep the premises safe for entry or use by others for recreational purposes or to give any warning of a dangerous condition, use, structure, or activity on the premises to persons entering for recreational purposes.

Section 51-3-23. Consequences of invitation or permission to use property for recreational purposes

Except as specifically recognized by or provided in Code Section 51-3-25, an owner of land who either directly or indirectly invites or permits without charge any person to use the property for recreational purposes does not thereby:

- (1) Extend any assurance that the premises are safe for any purpose;
- (2) Confer upon such person the legal status of an invitee or licensee to whom a duty of care is owed; or
- (3) Assume responsibility for or incur liability for any injury to person or property caused by an act of omission of such persons.

Section 51-3-24. Code Sections deemed applicable to duties and liability of owner of land leased to state or any subdivision thereof for recreational purposes

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, Code Sections 51-3-22 and 51-3-23 shall be deemed applicable to the duties and liability of an owner of land leased to the state or any subdivision thereof for recreational purposes.

Section 51-3-25. No limitation of liability for willful or malicious failure to guard or warn against danger, or for injury suffered when owner charges those who enter or go on the land

Nothing in this article limits in any way any liability which otherwise exists:

- (1) For willful or malicious failure to guard or warn against a dangerous condition, use, structure, or activity; or
- (2) For injury suffered in any case when the owner of land charges the person or persons who enter or go on the land for the recreational use thereof, except that, in the case of land leased to the state or a subdivision thereof, any consideration received by the owner for the lease shall not be deemed a charge within the meaning of this Code section.

Section 51-3-26. Article not to create duty of care or ground of liability for injury or relieve any person using land from any obligation which he may have in absence of article to exercise care

Nothing in this article shall be construed to:

- (1) Create a duty of care or ground of liability for injury to persons or property; or
- (2) Relieve any person using the land of another for recreational purposes from any obligation which he may have in the absence of this article to exercise care in his use of the land and in his activities thereon or from the legal consequences of failure to employ such care.

Exhibit B

Section 51-1-20. Person serving as member, director, or trustee, or as officer of board, immune from civil liability

(a) A person serving with or without compensation as a member, director, or trustee, or as an officer of the board without compensation, of any nonprofit hospital or association or of any nonprofit, charitable, or eleemosynary institution or organization or of any local governmental agency, board, authority, or entity shall be immune from civil liability for any act or any omission to act arising out of such service if such person was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her official actions and duties and unless the damage or injury was caused by the willful or wanton misconduct of such person.

(b) As used in this Code section, the term "compensation" shall not include reimbursement for reasonable expenses related to said services.

(c) This Code section shall not affect any immunity of any person arising from any source, whether or not such person may additionally be subject to and possess an immunity provided by this Code section. The immunity provided by this Code section shall be supplemental to any such existing immunity.
